

6516205475.txt

leave satellite radio alone. If we pay for it they should provide everything they are able to provide to use for our money. No one is going to put radio out of business, it is silly to try and take options away from satellite radio users.
Tonie Cowen